

This Side and That

By T D Richards

Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 135 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The poems of T. D. Richards are compelling, poignant and thought provoking. Whether he is writing about his beloved cottonwoods, tasty Indiana tomatoes, or a blessed breeze that travels all the way from the Pacific to offer relief from Hoosier humidity, he treats words with care and a generous helping of sacred respect. No matter his subject-spirituality, hope and humor are usually present, or hovering just at the edge of the page. John Bowman, author of This Could be the House I Die In T. D. Richards writes what he knows- whether it s an astute observation of the quirks and subtleties of nature, or a philosophical look at life and its ever-changing stages. With humor and intelligence, he shares his take on his world; sometimes bridging generations, and other times being radically in-the-moment. A wonderful compilation of poetry. Rita Spalding, visual artist and creator of The Poetry Series In this convincing, bittersweet collection of poems entitled This Side and That, T. D. Richards introduces you to characters normally hidden: a Cottonwood grove that embraces...
